TRANSPORTATION

Getting around Institut Kanser Negara is easy . There are several transportation modes. If you are driving your own car, Putrajaya is connected by several highways. Another way to get to Putrajaya and the quickest way is a ride on the KLIA Transit train. It provides two-way high-speed train service from KL Sentral station to Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA), however the train has several transits and Putrajaya Sentral Station is one of the transits. This transit station is located right in front of Institut Kanser Negara! And soon this station will have MRT II system station located right next to it. If you don't fancy driving yourself Grab service is available too.

ACCOMODATION

There are several hotels and residences around Putrajaya and its neighboring Cyberjaya. You can check the best rates and offers on the internet.
